

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

If Jack Frost prowls around a few more nights you'll commence to think about what's coming.

We thought about it some time ago and got ready for our customers and our stock is full of things to keep you comfortable.

Flannels to make things!

Flannels all made up!

Hose that are fleeced!

Hose that are wool!

Underwear of all sorts!

Perhaps you are wanting an extra Comforter or Blanket. Our stock was never more complete, from 49c to $10.00. Specials throughout the store this week.

HOMER FITTS

Our Experience is Your Gain!

The many years of experience we have had has taught us that good Shoes—solid, honestly-made Shoes from toe to top—are cheaper in the end for the customers and a better advertisement for us than poorly-made Shoes at "way-down" prices. We give you our experience. Good Shoes for Men, Women and Children at lowest possible prices.

EAST BARRE

Mrs. Will Poole and Mrs. H. L. Cheney of Montpelier spent Saturday evening in town.

The dance at Laine's hall last Saturday evening was very well patronized. There will be a dance there every Saturday night, unless notice is given to the contrary.

Several of our Italian residents spent yesterday in Northfield, paying a farewell visit to friends there before they leave for Italy.

A large number of our citizens took in the "harvest supper" at the Congregational vestry last Friday evening and all went away satisfied.

Mrs. A. C. Dickey continues on the sick list, though it is reported that she is gaining somewhat in health and strength.

Martin W. Coleman, a resident of Concord, N. H., who has been working in Northfield for the past month, came unexpectedly Saturday night to the home of his brother, A. C. Coleman. They had not seen each other for five years and the reunion was very pleasant.

On Saturday afternoon last the children of the Congregational church were given a drive in a hay wagon by Israel Wood and Warren Nelson. They were taken to Washington around the track and back. On their return they stopped at Tillotson's store and were treated to bananas by the ever generous Ira Calef. The children and "big folks" all appreciated his kindness. On reaching the church the little ones found supper awaiting them which they much enjoyed having together.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

In the account of the damages by lightning of last Friday night the item read L. C. Moody, which is a mistake. It should be L. C. Cheney who lost the two horses by lightning.

A large force of help was at work on the buildings of the fair association last Saturday and also today. Don't forget the dates of the fair, Sept. 22, 23, 24.

L. W. Seaver has been engaged for another year to run the creamery, and Ernest McDonald has been engaged by him as an assistant.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Parties living in the vicinity of street lamps are requested to take notice of the nights that the lights do not burn and thereby assist the lighting committee in procuring the best possible service.

Parties doing this will confer a favor by leaving a slip with the chief of police, the city clerk or any member of the board. Postal cards for this purpose may be procured from the city clerk.

John J. MacKenzie, Chairman Lighting Committee. Barre, Sept. 24, 1903.

GRANITEVILLE.

An ice cream social will be held in the Presbyterian church hall Thursday evening, Sept. 10th. A good programme will be given. Everybody come. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

George Sutor and family have returned from a two months' trip through the Canadian Northwest Territory.

Mrs. D. H. MacDonald of Chester, Mass., is here visiting friends.

Letter to Smith Stock Farm, Barre, Vt.

Dear Sir: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devos, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa., always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devos took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.

All paint, true paint, and full-measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly,
F. W. Devos & Co.
P. S.—Reynolds & Son sell our paint.

Against the Drinking Song.
A society has been formed in Germany which would abolish one of the most honored institutions of the fatherland, the song which celebrates the virtues of drink which is more or less alcoholic, says the New York Commercial Advertiser. The leader of the movement is Dr. Otto von Leisner, a well known social reformer. In a pamphlet on the subject he declares most vehemently against "the muse as a handmaid of alcohol." Such songs are sung by the youth of the land and are more directly responsible for the growth of alcoholism in Germany than any one thing.

WEST TOPSHAM.

W. A. Corliss and wife of Bradford were in town Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. George McGrillis of Warren, N. H., called on friends in town last week.

Mrs. G. K. Church returned home last week after being gone several months for her health.

Mason Jenkins and wife of Meredith, N. H., are visiting in town.

John Wilds and wife were in Washington Saturday returning Sunday.

Mrs. Annie B. S. Emery is sick. Miss Ida Emerson is caring for her.

Several of the village people attended the fair at East Corinth last week. Not much of a fair only a 25 cent visit.

NOVEL STRIKE TREATMENT.

Pictures, Sculpture and Music Recommended by an Educator.

Professor John Quincy Adams of the University of Pennsylvania, who is lecturing at the University of Chicago, proposes pictures, objects of art and music in the factories as the means of soothing discontented labor, says the New York Tribune. He said in a lecture:

"On the walls of a factory hang a dozen pictures by the old masters, interspersed with masterpieces of statuary culled from the gems of the world's famous sculptors. Mix in one band stand, secure a score of leather lunged musicians and let them play vigorously."

Professor Adams declares that thus cultivating the finer nature of the workmen would drive away all discontent and make them like their conditions better.

Seaver's Amusements.

Seaver when tired writing his treatises on morals found amusement in going over his accounts and calculating how much interest was due him.

Good Advice.

There is nothing men give so liberally as advice. You value it highly if it is full of truth and good sense. We tell you the truth when we say that the Colonial Paint is absolutely pure, and good sense says use the purest article money will buy. Therefore, accept our advice and use the best paint money can buy—the Colonial. Sold by C. A. Heath in Barre.
